roles, responsibilities, and involvement in the school of law enforcement or security personnel. The role of discipline will be clearly delegated to school administration.

The Superintendent of Schools or designee will be the district's chief emergency officer, and will coordinate communication between school staff and law enforcement and first responders. Effective and responsible communication following a crisis is critical. Therefore, the District will develop and maintain a crisis response team with the Superintendent or designee as its spokesperson. The chief emergency officer will also certify that all staff understand the district-wide school safety plan and receive training on the building-level emergency response plan, violence prevention and mental health, and will also ensure that district-wide and building-level plans are completed, reviewed annually, and updated, as needed, by the designated dates. The chief emergency officer will ensure that the district-wide plan is coordinated with the building-level plans, and that all required drills are conducted.
